Comment	I was a caregiver for my father who had Parkinson's and Alzheimer's disease, chronic kidney disease. Who needed 24-hour care. My sister was the POA, but had abused her power of attorney and committed fraud against my father. She was going to abandon him. And I was called in by him so she would not leave him all alone. My last company was informed of this 3 months before this happened.

DISCLOSURE FOR CONSUMER REPORTS

In connection with your employment or owner-operator (independent contractor) application, R & R Transportation Inc. may order one or more consumer report(s) (commonly known as "background reports" or "background checks") about you from one or more consumer reporting agencies. If you are hired or engaged as an owner-operator (independent contractor), additional consumer reports may be obtained in connection with and throughout your employment for employment purposes or for the legitimate business purpose of evaluating you as an owner-operator.

To the extent allowed by law, the consumer reports may include information concerning your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, mode of living, drug and alcohol test results, motor vehicle records, driving records, criminal history, public court records, employment history (including names and dates of previous employers, reason for termination of employment, work experience, and accidents), social security number validation, education, licensure, or verification of other information supplied by you. Such reports may be obtained from private and public record sources, including sanctions databases, CDLIS (including but not limited to CDLIS Central Site, CDLIS Master Pointer Record data and your driver record from the jurisdiction identified in the CDLIS data, in accordance with applicable state law and the Driver Privacy Protection Act), former employers, public court records, and federal, state, and other government agencies that maintain such records.

IMPORTANT DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND REPORTS FROM THE PSP Online Service

In connection with your application for employment with R & R Transportation Inc. ("Prospective Employer"), Prospective Employer, its employees, agents or contractors may obtain one or more reports regarding your driving, and safety inspection history from the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA).

When the application for employment is submitted in person, if the Prospective Employer uses any information it obtains from FMCSA in a decision to not hire you or to make any other adverse employment decision regarding you, the Prospective Employer will provide you with a copy of the report upon which its decision was based and a written summary of your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act before taking any final adverse action. If any final adverse action is taken against you based upon your driving history or safety report, the Prospective Employer will notify you that the action has been taken and that the action was based in part or in whole on this report.

When the application for employment is submitted by mail, telephone, computer, or other similar means, if the Prospective Employer uses any information it obtains from FMCSA in a decision to not hire you or to make any other adverse employment decision regarding you, the Prospective Employer must provide you within three business days of taking adverse action oral, written or electronic notification: that adverse action has been taken based in whole or in part on information obtained from FMCSA; the name, address, and the toll free telephone number of FMCSA; that the FMCSA did not make the decision to take the adverse action and is unable to provide you the specific reasons why the adverse action was taken; and that you may, upon providing proper identification, request a free copy of the report and may dispute with the FMCSA the accuracy or completeness of any information or report. If you request a copy of a driver record from the Prospective Employer who procured the report, then, within 3 business days of receiving your request, together with proper identification, the Prospective Employer must send or provide to you a copy of your report and a summary of your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

Neither the Prospective Employer nor the FMCSA contractor supplying the crash and safety information has the capability to correct any safety data that appears to be incorrect. You may challenge the accuracy of the data by submitting a request to <https://dataqs.fmcsa.dot.gov>. If you challenge crash or inspection information reported by a State, FMCSA cannot change or correct this data. Your request will be forwarded by the DataQs system to the appropriate State for adjudication.

Any crash or inspection in which you were involved will display on your PSP report. Since the PSP report does not report, or assign, or imply fault, it will include all Commercial Motor Vehicle (CMV) crashes where you were a driver or co-driver and where those crashes were reported to FMCSA, regardless of fault. Similarly, all inspections, with or without violations, appear on the PSP report. State citations associated with Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (FMCSR) violations that have been adjudicated by a court of law will also appear, and remain, on a PSP report.

The Prospective Employer cannot obtain background reports from FMCSA without your authorization.

AUTHORIZATION

If you agree that the Prospective Employer may obtain such background reports, please read the following and sign below:

I authorize R & R Transportation Inc. ("Prospective Employer") to access the FMCSA Pre-Employment Screening Program (PSP) system to seek information regarding my commercial driving safety record and information regarding my safety inspection history. I understand that I am authorizing the release of safety performance information including crash data from the previous five (5) years and inspection history from the previous three (3) years. I understand and acknowledge that this release of information may assist the Prospective Employer to make a determination regarding my suitability as an employee.

I further understand that neither the Prospective Employer nor the FMCSA contractor supplying the crash and safety information has the capability to correct any safety data that appears to be incorrect. I understand I may challenge the accuracy of the data by submitting a request to <https://dataqs.fmcsa.dot.gov>. If I challenge crash or inspection information reported by a State, FMCSA cannot change or correct this data. I understand my request will be forwarded by the DataQs system to the appropriate State for adjudication.

I understand that any crash or inspection in which I was involved will display on my PSP report. Since the PSP report does not report, or assign, or imply fault, I acknowledge it will include all CMV crashes where I was a driver or co-driver and where those crashes were reported to FMCSA, regardless of fault. Similarly, I understand all inspections, with or without violations, will appear on my PSP report, and State citations associated with FMCSR violations that have been adjudicated by a court of law will also appear, and remain, on my PSP report. I have read the above Disclosure Regarding Background Reports provided to me by Prospective Employer and I understand that if I sign this Disclosure and Authorization, Prospective Employer may obtain a report of my crash and inspection history. I hereby authorize Prospective Employer and its employees, authorized agents, and/or affiliates to obtain the information authorized above.

Consent for Limited Queries of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA)
Drug and Alcohol Clearinghouse

I hereby provide consent to R & R Transportation Inc. to conduct a limited query of the FMCSA Commercial Driver's License Drug and Alcohol Clearinghouse to determine whether drug or alcohol violation information about me exists in the Clearinghouse. I understand this consent shall remain on file and shall serve as ongoing consent for R & R Transportation Inc. to conduct multiple limited queries of the Clearinghouse at any time during my employment or contract period without asking me for additional consent.

I understand that if I refuse to provide consent for R & R Transportation Inc. to conduct a limited query of the Clearinghouse, R & R Transportation Inc. is required to prohibit me from performing safety-sensitive functions, including operating a commercial motor vehicle.

I understand that if the limited query conducted by R & R Transportation Inc. indicates that drug or alcohol information exists about me in the Clearinghouse, the FMCSA will not disclose that information to R & R Transportation Inc. unless I give additional specific consent within the Clearinghouse. However, I understand that R & R Transportation Inc. will be required to conduct a full query of the Clearinghouse within 24 hours after a limited query indicates that drug or alcohol information exists and that if I do not grant consent within the Clearinghouse for that full query I will be removed from performing safety-sensitive functions, including operating a commercial motor vehicle.

To release and forward in accordance with the following regulation, all known information pertaining to my alcohol and controlled substances testing/training records to R & R Transportation Inc.

DISCLOSURE AND AUTHORIZATION UNDER 49 C.F.R. PART 391.23 INCLUDING DOT DRUG AND ALCOHOL INFORMATION

For purposes of an investigation in accordance with 49 C.F.R. Part 391.23, I authorize my previous employers, contractors (if owner-operator), and trucking schools, as applicable, to release and forward to R & R Transportation Inc. ("Company") the following information for the past three (3) years:

1. DOT alcohol and controlled substance information in accordance with Parts 382 and 40 of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (49 CFR Part 382 and 49 CFR Part 40, Section 40.25) limited to the following DOT regulated testing items, including pre-employment testing results: (i) alcohol tests with a result of 0.04 or higher; (ii) verified positive drug tests; (iii) refusals to be tested; (iv) other violations of DOT agency drug and alcohol testing regulations; (v) information obtained from previous employers of a drug and alcohol rule violation; and (vi) documentation, if any, of completion of the return-to-duty process following a rule violation.

2. Safety performance history information in accordance with 49 CFR Part 391.23, which includes: employment dates, work history (which may include position held, reason for leaving, any termination information, whether subject to the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration regulations, equipment experience, area driven, and other information as applicable) and accident information (including accident date, nature of accident, whether it was preventable, whether there were injuries, fatalities, or hazardous materials involved, and copies of any accident report).

Pursuant to Section 391.23(i) of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations, you have the following rights with regard to the information released:

1. You have the right to make a written request at any time to review the information provided by previous employers, contractors (if owner-operator), or trucking schools, as applicable.
2. You have the right to have errors in the information corrected by the previous employer, contractor (if owner-operator), or trucking school, as applicable and for that employer, contractor (if owner-operator), or trucking school to re-send the corrected information.
3. You have the right to have a rebuttal statement attached to the alleged erroneous information if the previous employer, contractor (if owner-operator), or trucking school and you cannot agree on the accuracy of the information.

And changes in Parts 390 and 391 of the FMCSA

- 15 U.S.C. 1681j provides for the right to obtain a free copy of a consumer report on you from the consumer reporting agency which prepared your background report, under various circumstances, including but not limited to where you receive notice that an adverse action has been taken toward you based on the consumer report. In that instance, Section 1681j provides a right to a free copy of the report provided that you make the request within 60 days of the date that you received notice of the adverse action.
- 15 U.S.C. 1681i provides for the right to dispute, with a consumer reporting agency the accuracy or completeness of any information in a consumer report furnished by the agency.

INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORT DISCLOSURE

R & R Transportation Inc. ("Company") will order an 'investigative consumer report' concerning you for employment purposes or, if you are an owner-operator (independent contractor), for the legitimate business purpose of evaluating your suitability for an independent contractor engagement pursuant to your written instructions.

An 'investigative consumer report' is defined as a consumer report or portion thereof in which information on a consumer's character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living is obtained through personal interviews with neighbors, friends, or associates of the consumer reported on or with others with whom he is acquainted or who may have knowledge concerning any such items of information.

The investigative consumer report the Company will order concerning you will contain information concerning your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living, obtained through personal interviews.

You have the right to request the additional disclosures provided for under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. 1681d(b), which reads as follows:

Any person who procures or causes to be prepared an investigative consumer report on any consumer shall, upon written request made by the consumer within a reasonable period of time after the receipt by him of the disclosure required by subsection (a)(1) of this section, make a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation requested. This disclosure shall be made in a writing mailed, or otherwise delivered, to the consumer not later than five days after the date on which the request for such disclosure was received from the consumer or such report was first requested, whichever is the later.

At present, the specific 'nature and scope' of the investigative consumer report the Company may request is as follows: Employment Verifications, Motor Vehicle Reports, CDLIS, Criminal Records, and PSP. The report(s) will be requested from the following:

You have the right to request whether an investigative consumer report was ordered. You can also make a written request for a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation that was requested, request a copy of the report, a copy of any federal or state local notices of rights that may apply to you, or request the name, address and telephone number of the nearest unit of the consumer reporting agency designated to handle inquiries of each consumer reporting agency issuing an investigative consumer report about you, by sending a letter or email to the Company. You may also request and promptly receive from all such consumer reporting agencies free copies of any such investigative consumer reports.

MARYLAND: You have the right to request additional disclosures from the Company regarding the nature and scope of the requested investigation.

MASSACHUSETTS: If you contact the Company, you have the right to know whether the Company ordered an investigative consumer report about you. You also have the right to ask the CRA for a copy of any such report.

MINNESOTA: You have the right in most circumstances to submit a written request to the CRA for a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of any consumer report the Company ordered about you. The CRA must provide you with this disclosure within five business days after its receipt of your request or the report was requested by the Company, whichever date is later.

NEW JERSEY: You have the right to submit a request to the CRA for a copy of any investigative consumer report the Company ordered about you.

NEW YORK: If you contact the Company, you have the right to know whether the Company ordered a consumer report or investigative consumer report about you. Shown above is the CRA's address and telephone number. You have the right to contact the CRA to inspect or receive a copy of any such report. A copy of Article 23-A of the Correction Law is provided in connection herewith.

WASHINGTON STATE: If you submit a written request to the Company, you have the right to a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report the Company ordered about you. You are entitled to this disclosure within five business days after the date your request is received or we ordered the report, whichever is later. You also have the right to request a written summary of your rights under the Washington Fair Credit Reporting Act.

DISCLOSURE FOR CONSUMER REPORTS

In connection with your employment or owner-operator (independent contractor) application, R & R Transportation Inc. may order one or more consumer report(s) (commonly known as "background reports" or "background checks") about you from one or more consumer reporting agencies. If you are hired or engaged as an owner-operator (independent contractor), additional consumer reports may be obtained in connection with and throughout your employment for employment purposes or for the legitimate business purpose of evaluating you as an owner-operator.

To the extent allowed by law, the consumer reports may include information concerning your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, mode of living, drug and alcohol test results, motor vehicle records, driving records, criminal history, public court records, employment history (including names and dates of previous employers, reason for termination of employment, work experience, and accidents), social security number validation, education, licensure, or verification of other information supplied by you. Such reports may be obtained from private and public record sources, including sanctions databases, CDLIS (including but not limited to CDLIS Central Site, CDLIS Master Pointer Record data and your driver record from the jurisdiction identified in the CDLIS data, in accordance with applicable state law and the Driver Privacy Protection Act), former employers, public court records, and federal, state, and other government agencies that maintain such records.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment - or to take another adverse action against you - must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your "file disclosure"). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - ◆ a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - ◆ you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - ◆ your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - ◆ you are on public assistance;
 - ◆ you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need - usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).

- The following FCRA right applies with respect to nationwide consumer reporting agencies:

CONSUMERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO OBTAIN A SECURITY FREEZE

You have a right to place a "security freeze" on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit.

As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting 7 years.

A security freeze does not apply to a person or entity, or its affiliates, or collection agencies acting on behalf of the person or entity, with which you have an existing account that requests information in your credit report for the purposes of reviewing or collecting the account. Reviewing the account includes activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.

- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:
